SEPTEMBER 3, 1767. THE NUMBER 850.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

With the lateſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, May 25.

PRIVATE letters from Vienna mention that Prince Heraclius of Georgia had lately arrived there incog. and propoſed making the tour of Germany, France, England, and Holland.

This morning his Majeſty reviewed Elliot's and Burgoyne's regiments of light horſe on Wimbledon common; her Majeſty, the young Princes, their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of York, Glouceſter, and Cumberland, his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, the Marquis of Granby, the foreign Ambaſſadours, and a great number of other perſons of diſtinction were preſent. During the review a phaeton, in which was a Gentleman and a Lady, overſet by the horſes taking fright; by which the Lady had her ſhoulder diſlocated, and narrowly eſcaped being trampled to death, there being a prodigious number of ſpectators.

Saturday morning 111 tuns of Iriſh tallow were imported in the river from Dublin.

On Saturday a great number of ſhipwrights were engaged in the river, to embark, on good encouragement, for North America, where artificers in that branch are greatly wanted.

We hear two Engliſh phyſicians of note will in a few days ſet out for Copenhagen, in order to reſide at that Court, on handſome ſalaries from his Daniſh Majeſty.

A poor girl, not quite ſeventeen, of a good family in the Weſt, on Thurſday laſt came to the poſſeſſion of 700 a year, and a large ſum of money, by the death of an aunt.

It is ſaid an order has been ſent down to Portſmouth for the crews of all the guard ſhips at thoſe ports to be reduced to their loweſt complement.

This morning two tranſport ſhips, of 300 tuns each, fell down the river to Woolwich, to embark a quantity of artillery and ſtores for North America.

In conſequence of the large quantities of corn imported at Briſtol, there has been a very conſiderable reduction in that neceſſary of life in all the towns up the Severn; and laſt Saturday fortnight, at Bridgenorth in particular, exceeding good bread corn was cried to be ſold at 5s. per buſhel.

May 28. A letter from Jamaica ſays: "The opening of free ports of trade in this iſland has occaſioned an additional number of Spaniſh guarda coſtas to be put into commiſſion, with orders to keep a vigilant lookout, to ſearch and prevent the Spaniſh traders coming to this iſland; ſo that very few have been bold enough to run the riſk of coming here, and theſe have chiefly brought mules and cattle, but very little money. They now, in general, go to the French ports, where they meet with great encouragement; the French receive their dollars at 6s. 10d. halfpeny each, and we allow them only 6s. 6d. The French veſſels come down here in ſhoals with indigo, brandy, wines, cordials, &c, and ſome, I make no doubt, run manufactured goods, all which they ſell for ready money only; by which means they carry away not only the few dollars the Spaniards bring us, but even the currency of this country, viz. doublons, piſtoles, &c.

"There are three ſorts of manufactures which the Spaniards make uſe of that the French cannot ſupply them with, at leaſt not equal to ours, viz. printed copper-plate linens, linen checks, and coarſe woollens; however, though the French cannot manufacture them, they can, by their agents in England, purchaſe them, and ſend them to their colonies, where they ſell them as cheap as we can here."

We are informed that the pleaſing proſpects afforded by the cultivated lands in Eaſt Florida, and the known goodneſs of the climate, have greatly increaſed the number of adventurers to that inviting part of the world.

They write from Glaſgow that two ſhips are now loading there with a variety of goods proper for the markets of Corſica, where a Scots trading houſe has already been eſtabliſhed, under the protection of General Paoli.

May 29. It is ſaid that the Hon. C. T——d, and S——y C——y, have joined Mr. D———l, Mr. G———lle, and others, in the oppoſition to the preſent meaſures. One of the above Gentlemen publickly declared that the nation's buſineſs could not go on while the preſent leaders were in power. It is alſo ſaid that the two firſt Gentlemen will ſoon reſign.

The E—l of C——m rides out every day on Hamſtead heath on horſeback; and his partizans give out that there will be a new Parliament after this ſeſſion, which is to be triennial.

Conſiderable wagers are laid that the Earl of Eg——t will be at the head of affairs before the days are at the longeſt. Others ſay that the negotiation with that Earl is at an end.

The preſent ſcheme of politicks ſeems to be to play off one ſet of Gentlemen againſt the other, the conſequence of which will be that the ſtrongeſt party at preſent will only be next in turn; by which ſcheme we are deſtroying, what all the world combined could not effect, ourſelves.

The table at the Horſeguards, which was fromerly kept at the officers expenſe, is now to be at the expenſe of his Majeſty, like his Chaplains in Ordinary.

The French, with infinite labour and expenſe, have joined the Seine and the Loire in two places; namely from Brearre on the latter, and Orleans on ditto, to Montanges and Fontainbleau. They are now going to join the Marne and the Seine, which will render their internal navigation of the moſt ſurpriſing utility and conſequence.

Yeſterday ſome deſpatches of importance were ſent off from the Secretary of State's office for his Excellency Lord Charles Greville Montague, Governour of South Carolina.

The ardour of the publick this year to ſee the works of the artiſts of Great Britain (exhibited in Spring Gardens) was ſuch, that near 1300 l. was received during the exhibitions; which, at one ſhilling each, amounts to almoſt 26,000 ſpectators.

This having been frequently called the building age, and the ill effects of it ſhown, a correſpondent deſires we will inform (and he hopes it will reform) our readers, who continue in that frantick humour, that in Italy it is declared the bitterſt wiſh that can be made againſt an enemy (and indeed a moſt emphatical one it ſeems to be) "The curſe of BUILDING light upon you."

Commiſſions are now executing, in a capital houſe in this city, for goods to be ſhipped for Eaſt Florida to the amount of 5[illegible],000 l.

We hear there is a treaty of marriage on foot between the Right Hon. the Counteſs of Egremont and Count Bruhl.

Laſt Sunday morning, about ſix o'clock, a duel was fought between two young Gentlemen behind Montague houſe. The firſt Gentleman that fired miſſed his antagoniſt, who, in return, grazed the ear of the former with his piſtol ball. At the ſecond rencounter, the piſtol of one of the Gentlemen miſſing fire, the other generouſly refuſed to fire his piſtol, and they were both happily reconciled.

We hear from Scilly that the tin mine diſcovered there, from its eaſterly direction, is ſuppoſed to run quite under the bed of the channel which ſeparates the iſland from Cornwall and the Land's End.

Yeſterday ſeveral of the Lieutenants of his Majeſty's navy were deputed by their corps to the Hon. Captain Henry, with a letter of thanks to him for his humanely undertaking, and invarying perſeverance, to obtain for them that additional ſhilling a day which is now given to their preſent half pay.

On Friday the 8th inſtant the well known Mr. Rouſſeau thought fit, in a very abrupt manner, to leave his retreat at Mr. Davenport's at Wootton in Derbyſhire, leaving a letter behind him, in which he abuſes his protector and patron, who had entertained him with the utmoſt humanity, generoſity, and delicacy, and with an hoſpitality truly Britiſh. He hath not ſince been heard of; but as he took the road to London, it is ſuppoſed he conceals himſelf ſomewhere in this city. One would imagine, from this laſt inſtance of this Gentleman's conduct, as well as from the moſt unworthy returns he made to the ingenious Mr. Hume for conducting him into this land of liberty, whither he paſſionately deſired to come, and for many other benevolent and generous good offices, which he was led to confer purely from compaſſion to his diſtreſs, that the chief ingredients of Mr. Rouſſeau's compoſition are pride, caprice, and ingratitude, qualities peculiarly unbecoming a man of his ſingular talents and genius.

EDINBURGH, May 3. It is ſaid Sir Lawrence Dundas has ſubſcribed 15,000 l. towards carrying into execution the great canal, in the event of Mr. Smeaton's plan being adopted; 5000 l. we are alſo informed is ſubſcribed by Capt. Haldane, of Glencagles; 30,000 l. in the whole is already ſubſcribed, and in a few days it is ſuppoſed there will be more than ſufficient to carry it into execution, in the compleateſt and moſt extenſive plan.

May 4. It is reported here that certain intelligence is received from London of 45,000 l. being ſubſcribed for the making a large canal from Forth to Clyde; and that the toll of this large one is to be no more than that planned for the ſmall one now depending before the Houſe of Commons, which is to be read on Monday next, when council both for and againſt it are to be heard, and Mr. Smeaton is alſo ordered to attend. A few days will determine this long conteſted point betwixt a large and ſmall canal.

Extract of a letter from London, May 5.

"We are aſſured that on Monday the 11th inſt. the day appointed for the third reading of the canal bill, there will be preſented to a great houſe a ſubſcription of 80,000 l. for carrying into execution the great canal, which will effectually ſilence one of the principal arguments of the advocates for the bill now depending."

Upon receiving the agreeable accounts of his Grace the Duke of Buccleugh's marriage with Lady Elizabeth Montagu, only daughter of his Grace the Duke of Montagu, which happened on the 2d inſt. the Bailie and principal inhabitants of the town of Dalkeith, in the neighbourhood of this town, where one of his Grace's family houſes in Scotland is ſituated, aſſembled at an inn in that town (where an elegant entertainment was prepared) and teſtified their joy and ſatisfaction at that happy event, in the moſt ample and ſincere manner. The town was illuminated, bonfires were erected at the outer palace gate and other places of the town, the bells were ſet a ringing, and the night concluded with every demonſtration of joy.

We are alſo informed that the like marks of joy and ſatisfaction were teſtified over all the parts of his Grace's extenſive eſtate in the ſouth, particularly at Langholm, Hawick, &c. at which a great many of the Gentlemen in the neighbourhood aſſiſted.

Extract of a letter from Dunkeld, May 8.

"A buxom country wench, who lives at D—, a village about four miles from this place, was ſo harraſſed by the addreſſes of a number of lovers that ſhe gave her hand to a tailor, more out of view of being freed from the viſits of the others than from any particular attachment to him; this ſtep ſo enraged another of her lovers, who until then had flattered himſelf with having the principal place in her affections, that he was reſolved to be revenged on the tailor. Laſt Tueſday they met at K—— n market, when the tailor had taken in more liquor than he could well carry; being in this helpleſs ſtate, his rival, as they were returning home together, took the opportunity of performing the ſame operation on him that the Italians do on their male ſingers, upon which the rival made his escape. The wife declared she would live no longer in a place where she would be the talk of the whole country, and made her elopement to Edinburgh. The tailor is thought to be in a fair way of recovery, and seems more afflicted for the loss of his wife than of his manhood."

May 16. On Monday morning last the wife of Matthew Millar, hair-dresser in Mechlin, was safely delivered of a son and two daughters at one birth, all in a good way.

May 18. On the 7th instant the wife of J. M. an officer of excise at Montrose, was brought to bed of three daughters at one birth, and full time, all sprightly and well looked. The mother had formerly twins, and at present has ten children alive, though only married twelve years.

May 20. On Saturday there was at Earlstoun, in the south country, a very great storm of hail, attended with a vast deal of thunder, lightning, and rain, whereby the bridge below that place was broken down, and the rivulets rose so high as to be impassable either for man or horse. One boy on the Haughs was carried down by the water, and perished. Considerable damage has been done to the arable and pasture grounds by this sudden fall of hail and rain, the like of which has not been known in these parts in the memory of man. The hail measured four inches round in the muir on the south east of Earlstoun, and several men in the fields declare they were forced to cover their heads with their clothes for fear of being beat down. This very extraordinary storm lasted only about two hours, from half past one to near three o'clock afternoon, when the evening turned out to be quite fair, warm, and calm.

There now live in the town of Prestonpans a husband and wife, he 102 and she 103 years of age. They are fishers, and have never as yet been a burthen to the parish.

May 29. We hear from Wick, in Caithness, that a copper mine has been discovered within a mile of that place, in the grounds belonging to Sir William Dunbar of Hemprigs, Bart. That Sir William has let it upon lease to some Gentlemen who have already begun to work it, and it affords the most promising appearance of success. The ore is very rich, and the mine so near to the sea that it can be put into boats as they work it, without the expense of land carriage.

GLASGOW, June 3. A great assembly have resolved that the King and Parliament had, hath, and of right ought to have, full power and authority to make laws and statutes of sufficient force and validity to bind the colonies and people of America, subjects of the Crown of Great Britain, in all cases whatsoever. That tumults and insurrections, of the most dangerous nature, have been raised and carried on in many places in North America, in open defiance of the power and dignity of his Majesty's government, and in violation of the laws and authority of this kingdom.

"That the said tumults, &c. have been greatly countenanced and inflamed by votes, &c. passed in several of their Assemblies, highly injurious to the honour of his Majesty's government, and tending to destroy the constitutional dependency of the said colonies on the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain.

"That such persons who have suffered any injury or damage, by assisting in carrying into execution any acts of the Legislature of Great Britain, relative to the said colonies, ought to have full and ample compensation made to them for the same, by the respective colonies where such damages were sustained.

"That all his Majesty's subjects, residing in the said colonies, who have manifested their desire to comply with, or to assist in carrying into execution, any acts of the British Parliament relating to the said colonies, have acted as dutiful and loyal subjects; and are therefore entitled to, and will assuredly have, the protection of the House of Commons."

It is said that his Majesty will, at the desire of the House of Commons, confer some marks of Royal favour on those Governours, &c. in the several colonies, for their zeal and fidelity in supporting the dignity of the Crown, &c. during the late disturbances in America.

Last week two couple from the south were married at Gretna Green. One of the Ladies was only 15, and said to be a Nobleman's daughter stole from a boarding school, and will have a fortune of 500l. a year. She objected to be married in a private house, and was with much ado prevailed on to comply at the time; crying out, Oh! must I be married in such a shabby place! The parson however, from this demur, took the hint to raise his price, and would not marry them under 10 guineas. The Gentleman comes from the neighbourhood of Haltwhistle.

Extract of a letter from Aberdeen, May 7.

"A barber boy in this place was dressing a Gentleman about 8 o'clock at night, when he filled his bag with some pounded rozin (that one of his companions had left in the shop) which he took for hair powder, and accordingly powdered the Gentleman's hair with it; after the boy was done, he took up the candle to look how he had dressed him, when unluckily some of the hairs catched fire and set the Gentleman's head in a blaze, which put him in such a violent passion that he beat the poor boy so much that he is thought to be in great danger. He was immediately carried to our infirmary."

WILLIAMSBURG, August 27.

The Burwell, Captain Lilly, in 12 weeks from London, is arrived in York river. She bringing no news, and no mail coming by the Northward post this week, is the cause of our present barrenness.

WILLIAMSBURG, Sept. 3, 1767.

THE Committee appointed by the Hon. the House of Burgesses to collect the publick acts of Virginia in force and use having employed us, jointly with Mr. Rind, to print the same; and as they are to be set about immediately, and will be finished with the utmost despatch, this is to inform all persons, who are desirous of being supplied with a book so much needed, that, as there will be but few copies printed more than will serve the country, it will be necessary that they should send in their subscriptions by the October court; those who intend taking them from us to the Post Office, and from Mr. Rind to his Printing Office. It is supposed the volume will contain upwards of 150 sheets, which is half as large again as the last revisal. It will be printed on a new large type, and good paper; and neatly bound and lettered. The price 40 s. to subscribers; and should any remain after they are served, they will not be sold for less than 3 l.

PURDIE & DIXON.

MARCH the 21st, 1765, the subscriber bought a tract of land, lying in the county of Essex, and parish of South Farnham, from Thomas Gresome and John Merrit, for a valuable consideration, containing 505 acres, to which deed there are four witnesses, two of which have been out of the colony for a considerable time, which prevents the said deed being fully proved; the 18th of May last it was proved in Essex court, by the other two witnesses now here. Under these circumstances, I am advised to take this method to forewarn all persons from making a purchase of the aforesaid land from either Thomas Gresome or John Merrit, without the approbation of

ARCHIBALD RITCHIE.

~~York~~ Town, September 1, 1767.

AS I purpose leaving the colony next spring, I once more give this notice to those who are indebted to me that, if their balances are not discharged by the 20th of next month, no further indulgence will be given.

I will sell or lease for a term of years the house wherein I now live, situated on the main street in this town, with two lots adjoining, on which are all necessary houses, with a large garden; the whole paled in.

The goods I have in the store, several house servants, horses, and household furniture, will be sold privately, to any persons who may have occasion, until Monday the 2d of November next, when the remainder will be sold off at publick vendue, and credit allowed the purchasers, for all sums above forty shillings, until the 20th of April next, bond and security being given.

I have also a tract of land, late in Lunenburg, but now in Mecklenburg county, within a few miles of the court-house, containing 1068 acres, which I would sell to any one on very good terms; and if not sold before the above date, will likewise be put up at vendue.

NICHOLAS DICKSON.

To be SOLD on the premises, on Wednesday the 23*d instant,*

A TRACT of LAND in York county, containing 268 acres, late the property of Matthew Shields, deceased, whereon is a good dwelling house, kitchen, dairy, smokehouse, hen house, barn, tobacco house, corn house, stable, a good well, a fine apple and peach orchard, and ground cleared sufficient to work six hands. The land is esteemed good for corn, wheat, &c. and will answer very well for tobacco. The time of payment, which will be easy, will be made known to the purchaser on the day of sale.

WILLIAM PEARSON.

N. B. Thirty head of cattle, some hogs, horses, plantation utensils, &c. may be had with the land, on reasonable terms.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, in Talbot county, Maryland, on the 12th of July last, a servant man named JOHN KNOWLES, though since he left this place he has changed his name, and calls himself HURLEY, a blacksmith by trade, but now passes for a sailor, or a waterman. He is about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, an Irishman born, has a pretty fresh complexion, and is marked with the smallpox. Had on when he went away two blue jackets, one without sleeves, a pair of buckskin breeches died black, about half worn, and a pair of black and white worsted ribbed stockings. He has black hair, commonly tied behind; and when he went off he had on his right hand a very sore finger, which I think is not so firmly cured but that it may be discovered at this time. Whoever takes up and secures the said servant, so as the owner may have him again, shall have a reward of THREE POUNDS; and if brought home, reasonable charges paid by

2‖ SAMUEL STEVENS.

Williamsburg, Sept. 1, 1767.

I INTEND for the city of LONDON very soon.

JAMES ATHERTON.

FREDERICKSBURG, August 25, 1767.

AFTER nine years experience, I am convinced a Virginia estate interferes too much with my profession to admit of attendance enough, without doing injustice to those who depend on the latter; and without due attention to the first, its losses will very much abridge the profits of the last. For these reasons I intend to sell the following LANDS and SLAVES, at the times and on the terms hereafter mentioned, viz.

4875 acres of land, being part of 6500 contained in one tract on Shenando river, in the county of Frederick, in Virginia. It is sufficient to recommend this land to say that it contains more than a moderate proportion of low ground. The sale to be on the premises the first day of December next, if fair, otherwise next fair day, before when it will be laid off in lots for the convenience of the buyers. One half of the purchase money to be paid by the 10th of April next, the other half by the 10th of March 1769: Any person inclinable to view the land may be shown it by Mr. Edward Snigars, who lives adjoining. Five per cent. discount for ready money will be allowed on the first payment, and twelve and a half per cent. on the second.

Also to be sold, at private sale, one other tract on Four Mile run, about 5 miles from the town of Alexandria, in the county of Fairfax, containing 1166 acres; part is very good, and part mean; but as it is level, it is capable of being improved to advantage. There are several acres very fit for meadow, and a stream within it which is very constant, and sufficient even for a tub mill.

Also one other tract on Pohick run, containing 1059 acres, about 5 miles from the town of Colchester, in the said county of Fairfax. I never saw this land, so cannot vouch for its quality, but I presume it is like the neighbouring lands which are occupied; and, as there are two tenants on this, I suppose they think it is worth seating. The tenants are at will, so no encumbrance.

Likewise to be sold, at publick sale, on the 16th of next December, at my mill plantation on Little river, in the county of Loudoun, two miles from Captain William West's ordinary, 40 SLAVES, 28 workers, the rest sizable children; they are likely slaves, and the young ones remarkably so, having been well fed and clothed from their birth. Also all the stocks of horses, black cattle, hogs, and sheep; corn, wheat, rye, oats, hay, and fodder (of which there will be a large quantity) and all the plantation utensils belonging to two quarters. The black cattle are remarkably fine, some of the horses are blooded, and a great number of the hogs will then be fattened for pork. The slaves will be sold on the same terms with the Frederick lands, and the stocks, &c. for three months credit only, with a discount of two and a half per cent. for ready money.

At the same time will be let, for lives or years, the said mill plantation, with 400 or more acres of land adjoining (to include 352 acres lately purchased of Mr. Craven Peyton) whereon are many valuable improvements; among which is a very constant and well accustomed tub mill, with a bolt to go by water, and floors, convenient for merchant work. It is so well situated as to have earned 120 barrels of Indian corn a year, besides a large quantity of wheat and rye. Also a double pitched framed barn, with three floors for storing threshed grain, well shingled, and underpinned with stone, and is about three years old. Likewise a large framed house, lately built by Mr. Peyton for his dwelling house; it is not finished, but is well shingled, and weather-boarded with feather-edge plank, and has a good cellar walled with stone. There is now on this plantation about 30 acres of meadow, well set with timothy, and 150 more may be made with very little expense. But it is to be observed that, as a tract to which this proposed tenement adjoins is thought to contain a great quantity of iron ore, if a furnace or other works should be built thereon, then the lease for this tenement to determine on the first day of November next, after the workmen or labourers shall begin to erect the works, or dig the ore.

Also for sale the said adjoining tract, together with the tenement last mentioned; the whole containing 17,200 acres, on easy terms, and very long credit for greatest part of the money. It is thought to be very fit for iron works, and to contain an inexhaustible quantity of iron ore, and wood and water enough for two furnaces, and several single forges. There are two streams within this tract; the one about 5 miles below the other, is always the same, and is fed by a spring which rises at the top of a mountain, about half a mile from where the furnace would be fixed. It is more than sufficient for a furnace and merchant mill. The upper stream is called Little river, and for nine months in the year would supply four tub mills. I speak of dry years, for until lately it never failed supplying my tub mill, which consumes a prodigious quantity of water; and, at the driest season, this mill grinds about two hours every morning. The stream is so land locked that it is the opinion of an iron master, who accompanied me to the place in July 1765 (a dry year) that it will support several single forges very near each other; and with reservoirs, which may be made with very little expense, it might be made perpetual. At the time he attended me the season had been very dry for a considerable time, and my overseer informed us that the water was nearly at the lowest; and then, from an experiment, we found the fountain yielded as much as could be discharged through a trough 24 inches square. Many thousand acres of this land are extremely fine, and the whole well covered with wood, and affords an excellent range for stock. Its situation is very good as to inland trade for iron, and the land carriage is 45 miles to Alexandria, 32 to Colchester, and 36 to the town of Dumfries, on Quantico creek; the lower stream is 5 miles nearer to Colchester and Dumfries, to which the roads are equal to the best natural road in America, and the neighbourhood is well settled with Pennsylvania and Jersey farmers. I have neither time nor skill to make such assays as are necessary to discover the quantity or quality of the ore, but if any persons incline to make experiments they are at full liberty to do so, and my overseer, now on the premises, will show all the blossoms on the land; and if such persons become purchasers or partners, they shall be amply allowed for their skill and labour in such inquiries.

An unexceptionable title will be made, with general warranty, and bond and security will be expected of the purchasers. Besides, the lands will not be conveyed until the purchase money is paid; and, as a collateral security, I shall insist on a bill of sale for the slaves.

JAMES MERCER.

WILLIAMSBURG, Sept. 3, 1767.

THE inconvenience of collecting ſmall ſums from perſons living at a great diſtance from this place and from each other, as well as the neceſſity I am under of paying ready money for moſt of the materials I uſe, obliges me to take this method of requeſting all thoſe who are indebted to me for STAYS to make ſpeedy payment, and to acquaint thoſe whoſe accounts have been ſtanding above a year that, unleſs they are diſcharged on or before the enſuing October court, I ſhall be conſtrained to put them into the hands of proper attornies. As I continue the buſineſs of ſtaymaking as uſual, I embrace this opportunity of informing thoſe who live at a diſtance, and may pleaſe to favour me with their future cuſtom, that I ſhall expect the money along with their orders, or that it may be lodged in the hands of ſome perſon in town, to be paid on the delivery of the ſtays, in which caſe they may depend on having them ſpeedily executed, in the beſt manner, and neweſt faſhion.

JAMES DOUGLAS.

THOMAS MOORE.

KING WILLIAM, Auguſt 25, 1767.

WATT's PARK, Dinwiddie, Auguſt 24, 1767.

I FIND myſelf under the diſagreeable neceſſity of cautioning the publick of a certain Thomas Harriſon, a brother of mine, a perpetual ſot; who has impoſed on ſeveral of my friends, by borrowing money in my name. He came into the country laſt fall, or rather was ſent by his friends to get quit of a plague. After I found what ſort of man he was, I was determined to return the compliment; and accordingly took his paſſage laſt ſpring, but when he got to Norfolk he ſpent his money. After this he came up to Cabin Point, and applied to a friend of mine for a letter of credit on a Gentleman of Norfolk, by whom he was re-ſupplied with caſh, and a paſſage taken for him; but when the veſſel was to ſail he was not to be found, nor appeared to the Gentleman while a ſhilling remained. Then he requeſted more; but being juſtly refuſed, he ſpent his clothes. At laſt he borrowed a horſe, pretending to come and ſee me. He was ſeen at Blandford about ten days ago with a horſe, as I am informed; for ſeen him I have not ſince ſpring laſt. Where he now is, I know not; but as this is a ſeaſon that abounds with cider and brandy, and a country in which ſtrangers meet with a general and kind welcome, I imagine he is not far from Peterſburg. If any perſon will be kind enough to bring the horſe to me (which is a ſorrel with a blaze face, bob tail, about 14 hands high) that I may return him again to the owner, ſhall have 40s. for his trouble. As the misfortune to have ſuch a brother is ſufficiently great of itſelf, I hope the publick will not think me reſponſible for his actions.

SCHEME of a LOTTERY,

FOR disposing of 146 LOTS of LAND, in the town of Hanover, yet remaining unsold. —— The least valuable of the lots, according to the prices of those most remote from the water, which have been sold, not being less than 20 l. which is far below a medium between that sum and what was given for several near the water, the unsold lots are rated at 30 l. each, accounting 1, 2, 8, 9, 10, on which Page's warehouses stand, one lot; and 24, 35, 36, 47, 48, 49, on which Crutchfield's warehouses stand, one other lot only, so that there will be but 137 lots in the whole to be drawn for; and it is proposed that there shall be no more than that number of chances, and consequently no blanks. The consideration money will not be required of Gentlemen willing to become adventurers, and subscribing to the scheme, until April next; when it is to be paid to the proprietor at Williamsburg, either in cash, or 3000 wt. of tobacco. The drawing will be soon after the subscription shall be completed, of which notice shall be given in the Virginia Gazette. Robert Carter Nicholas, George Wythe, Thomas Everard, John Thompson, and Jerman Baker, Esquires, will be managers of the lottery, or any three of them. Tf MANN PAGE.

A SCHEME,

For disposing of, by way of LOTTERY, the LAND and TENEMENTS under mentioned, being the entire towns of Rocky Ridge and Shockoe, lying at the Falls of James river, and the land thereunto adjoining.

THE advantageous situation of this estate is too well known to require a particular description, though it may be necessary to inform the publick that the obstructions through the Falls, and in other parts of the river above, will shortly be removed, and the river made navigable to the said towns: The navigation will thereby be extended, and made both safe and easy for upwards of two hundred miles above the said Falls, and a communication opened to the western frontier of the middle colonies, whereby there will not be more than sixty or seventy miles portage from James river to the Ohio; so that the immense treasure of that valuable country must necessarily be brought to market to one or other of the aforesaid towns, which will occasionally raise the rents, and enhance the value, of the lands and tenements under mentioned, beyond the powers of conception.
